GB Paraclimbing Squad Selection Policy 2021

1. GB Paraclimbing Selection Policy

- 1.1 This selection policy outlines the approach GB Climbing will undertake in selecting athletes to the GB Paraclimbing Squad 2021.
- 1.2 The squad is open to British climbers who in 2021 are eligible to compete in para competitions under IFSC rules.
- 1.3 From this squad, athletes will be selected to represent Great Britain at International paraclimbing competitions. It is possible that not all members of the squad may get to attend international events. The selection process is outlined in the international Selection Policy.

2. Performance Objectives

- 2.1 The intention of the selection policy is to provide clarity and consistency in approach to the selection for athletes with the following performance aims:
 - 2.1.1 To help to support an athlete's development both as an individual and as a competition climber on the GB climbing pathway.
 - 2.1.2 Support athletes by being athlete centered and create a positive experience during their talent pathway journey and leave having developed both as an individual and as a climber.
 - 2.1.3 Create an athlete centered pathway of attainment, ensuring that the required levels of physical, technical and tactical skill are achieved to allow progression.
 - 2.1.4 Ensuring that obtaining a GB Climbing vest continues to be an aspiration for GB athletes throughout the BMC talent pathway and that GB athletes are inspired and motivated to continue their athletic journey and development towards future podium success

3. Squad Size

- 3.1 8 athletes per gender will be selected as a minimum.
- 3.2 Once the selection process is completed, there will be no further selection opportunities for the GB Para squad during 2021, except as outlined in section 9.3

4. Eligibility

In addition to BMC eligibility criteria listed below, athletes must comply with IFSC eligibility rules¹, including anti-doping.

- 4.1 Athletes are members of BMC or Mountaineering Scotland
- 4.2 Athletes must be a British citizen and are eligible to represent Great Britain
- 4.3 Athletes have signed the GB Climbing Agreement and abide by its terms and conditions. Any athlete failing to do so could see their selection being withdrawn.
- 4.4 Athletes comply with IFSC and UK Anti-Doping rules and anti-doping blood/urine testing policies. Notified athletes on the National and/or International testing pools will comply with the requirements of the World Anti-Doping Code and International Standard for Testing with regard to ADAMS and whereabouts information.
- 4.5 Eligibility to enter international events is subject to confirmation of category by an IFSC medical official at an IFSC event. This classification will be applied by the IFSC and may result in reclassification at an IFSC event. Any such reclassification by the IFSC will subsequently apply in UK competitions.

5. Selection Panel

- 5.1 All selections are made by the BMC selection panel:
 - Chair - Deputy CEO (Nick Colton), casting vote
 - BMC Competitions Program Manager (Zoe Spriggins), voting rights
 - Mountaineering Scotland Representative (TBC), voting rights
 - GB Paracimbing Coach (Robin O'Leary), voting rights
 - Independent Observer (TBC), no voting right

- 5.2 Other expert advisors or observers such as representatives from UK Sport or other such bodies may be invited to attend from time to time, but not have any voting rights.
- 5.3 The purpose of the Independent Observer is to ensure the Selection Policy is not being deviated from.
- 5.4 The selection panel will exercise its discretion fairly and without bias in making its decision against the selection criteria listed in this document.
- 5.5 Decisions will be made by majority vote.

6. Confidentiality

- 6.1 Athletes and officials must not disclose any information regarding any selection decisions or appeals until such information is publicly announced or disclosed by GB Climbing.

7. Selection Criteria

- 7.1 Athletes will be selected for a place on the GB para squad via one of the selection methods below. Place allocation will be prioritized in the following order and will be conducted in October 2020.
 - 7.1.1.2 Priority 1- Achieve a podium place at any confirmed IFSC para event in 2020.
 - 7.1.1.3 Priority 2– Athletes will be selected from each recognised IFSC category at the British Para Climbing Series. The first placed male and first placed woman will be selected. The events making up the British Para Climbing Series are as follows:
 - 23 February at Awesome Walls Sheffield
 - 6 June at The Westway
 - 13 September, EICA Ratho
 - 20 September, Rock UK, Summit Centre

- 7.1.1.4 The best three (3) scores from the above four (4) events will be considered and athletes will be ranked according to their three (3) best scores.
- 7.1.1.5 The highest ranked athletes in each category after the best three (3) scores have been taken into consideration will be selected via Priority 2, irrespective of the number of athletes who achieve pre-selection via Priority 1.
- 7.1.1.6 In the event that no athletes are preselected in a category via Priority 1, then three (3) athletes from the events listed will be selected for that category.
- 7.1.1.7 If an athlete has already achieved selection through Priority 1 and competes at any of the series events, their result(s) will be removed from the rankings and athletes ranked below them will be selected.
- 7.1.1.8 Results of climbers from other nations participating at the above series (article 7.1.1.3) events will not be counted as part of the selection via Priority 2, the highest placed athletes who are eligible, will be selected.
- 7.1.1.9 If categories are merged at the National events, the top placed athlete from each individual category will be selected.

8 Deselection- Substitutions and Injuries

- 8.1 Selection to the GB Para squad is in accordance with the prevailing selection policy.

8.2 Injured Athletes –

- 8.2.1 Non-2020 GB para squad members - If an athlete has not achieved pre-selection and cannot perform at the selection events then they will not be eligible for selection to the GB para squad for the year 2021.
- 8.3 2020 GB para squad members - At this time, the membership of athletes affected by injury or illness will be afforded a certain amount of protection:
- 8.4 A significant injury/illness is defined as follows:
- One that impacts on an athlete's ability to fully train/compete for a single or cumulative 3-month period;
OR
 - One that, happens at a crucial time in the calendar that significantly impacts on the athlete's ability to deliver performances that would otherwise have qualified them for retention on the squad (i.e. such as at the World Championships).
- 8.5 Athletes who are unable to compete at the specified selection events or International events due significant injury/illness may be retained by the Squad for the following year.
- 8.6 Please note, where an athlete has been affected by a performance limiting injury/illness, there may be return-to fitness performance conditions to that athlete's membership that they will be expected to meet in order to remain on the GB para squad 2021.

9 Appeals

- 9.1 Any appeals must be made in writing via email to the BMC (zoe@thebmc.co.uk) in accordance with the GB Climbing appeals document located on the BMC website.
- 9.2 The sole grounds of appeal against the decision of any selection panel will be that:
- a) there has been a failure to follow the GB para squad Selection Policy;
or
 - b) that the selection panel reached a decision on the basis of an error of fact.
- 9.3 The right to appeal a selection decision is provided on these limited grounds only and must not be seen as an opportunity to dispute the opinion of the selection panel where they have followed the proper procedure and selection criteria stated in the GB para squad selection policy.

- 9.4 In reaching their decision the selection panel are acting as experts and athletes agree that in so doing the panel exercises judgment and discretion which are not in themselves capable of challenge.
- 9.5 There are no appeals allowed against the content of the published GB para squad Selection Policy and therefore against the actions of the selection panel, provided they follow the selection criteria published.
- 9.6 Any appeal relating to the process will be conducted in accordance with the GB Climbing appeals policy.
